CONSOLIDATION RULING

In the matter of the Department of Juvenile Justice
Ruling Numbers 2014-3753, 2014-3754
October 29, 2013

This ruling addresses the consolidation of the grievant's two grievances filed with the Department of Juvenile Justice (the agency). For the reasons discussed below, the Office of Employment Dispute Resolution (EDR) finds that consolidation of these grievances into a single hearing is appropriate and practicable.

FACTS

The two grievances at issue are 1) a July 3, 2013 grievance regarding a Group II Written Notice issued to the grievant, and 2) an October 1, 2013 dismissal grievance challenging a second Group II Written Notice accompanying the grievant's termination from employment. Both parties agree that consolidation is appropriate in this instance.

DISCUSSION

Approval by EDR in the form of a compliance ruling is required before two or more grievances may be consolidated in a single hearing. Moreover, EDR may consolidate grievances for hearing without a request from either party.¹ EDR strongly favors consolidation and will consolidate grievances when they involve the same parties, legal issues, policies, and/or factual background, unless there is a persuasive reason to process the grievances individually.²

EDR finds that consolidation of the grievant's July 3, 2013 and October 1, 2013 grievances is appropriate. These grievances involve the same grievant and could share common themes, claims, and witnesses. The grievances both relate to disciplinary actions issued to the grievant, the accumulation of which ultimately ended in her termination. Further, we find that consolidation is not impracticable in this instance. Therefore, the grievant's July 3, 2013 and October 1, 2013 grievances are consolidated for a single hearing. A hearing officer will be appointed in a forthcoming letter.
