In the matter of the Department of Juvenile Justice
Ruling Numbers 2008-1776, 2008-1777
August 28, 2007

The Department of Juvenile Justice (DJJ or the agency) has asked that the grievant's two July 9, 2007 grievances be consolidated for hearing. For the reasons discussed below, this Department finds that consolidation of these grievances into a single hearing is appropriate and practicable.

FACTS

The grievant was employed by the agency as a Rehabilitation Counselor II. On June 12, 2007, she received a Group II Written Notice for allegedly failing to attend mandatory training on May 30-31, 2007. She also received a Group III Written Notice for allegedly being on unauthorized leave from May 25 to June 8, 2007. In conjunction with the Written Notices, the grievant's employment was terminated effective June 12, 2007.

The grievant subsequently initiated two grievances challenging these disciplinary actions. After the parties failed to resolve the grievances during the management resolution steps, the agency head qualified the grievances for hearing. The agency has asked that the two grievances be consolidated for a single hearing. By letter dated August 20, 2007, this Department advised the parties that it had received the agency's request and asked for any additional information from the parties. Neither party has provided any additional information, and the grievant has not objected to consolidation of the grievances for hearing.

DISCUSSION

Approval by the Director of this Department or her designee in the form of a compliance ruling is required before two or more grievances may be consolidated in a single hearing. Moreover, EDR may consolidate grievances for hearing without a request from either party.<sup>1</sup> EDR strongly favors consolidation and will consolidate grievances when they involve the same parties, legal issues, policies, and/or factual background, unless there is a persuasive reason to process the grievances individually.<sup>2</sup>

This Department finds that consolidation of the grievant's July 9, 2007 grievances is appropriate. The grievances concern the discipline of one grievant, involve the same parties and certain potential witnesses, and likely share common themes and claims. Furthermore, the grievances do not appear to involve unusually complex or difficult claims and consolidation is not impracticable in this instance.

This Department's rulings on compliance are final and nonappealable.<sup>3</sup>
